

Volume 1 Issue 2

View this email in your browser

September 2017

Theme: MIGRATION

NEW FRONTIERS

A Quarterly Newsletter for Global Education and Advocacy

Society of the Sacred Heart

JPIC Office, Rome

UN-NGO, New York

To be One Body which loves, practices and gives witness to justice, peace and integrity of creation at all levels of our life and mission.

(General Chapter 2016, 25)

We pray for Earth and all her people, especially those suffering the devastating effects of conflict and climate related disasters.

News from Rome

In his message, Pope Francis calls migration a global issue that needs a global response.

Governments, Churches and civil society groups are all called to work in partnership. He says that young people on the move are especially in need of protection. Click here.

News from New York

The Society of the Sacred Heart at the UN belongs to the NGO Committee on Migration (<https://ngo-migration.org/>). Click on the photos below to view the

Dicastery for Promotion of Integral Human Development website

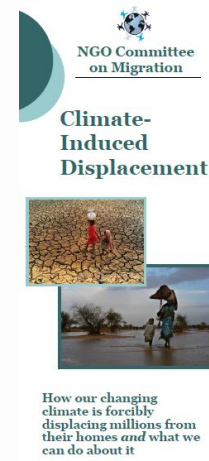

The Migrants & Refugees Section is a small action-oriented Vatican office personally directed by Pope Francis. Click here.

UISG Migrants Project International Desk

Click here to read the statement about the UISG Migrants Project International Desk by Florence de la Villeon, RSCJ.

JPIC News from the Field

informational pamphlets produced by two of the sub-committees.

JPIC – UN/NGO Collaboration

Sheila Smith, RSCJ, (UN-NGO Representative) and Anne Corry, RSCJ, (International JPIC Coordinator) at the UN in Vienna at the Fifth Thematic Consultation on the Global Compact on Migration, “Smuggling of Migrants, Trafficking in Persons and Contemporary Forms of Slavery, Including Appropriate Identification, Protection and Assistance to Migrants and Trafficking Victims.”

Click here to view the 3 minute oral presentation, and Click here to read the

full statement.

Fatima Santalo-Ossorio, RSCJ (ESP), and baby

Bantaba: A Story From the Field by Fatima Santalo-Ossorio, RSCJ (ESP)

The Religious of the Sacred Heart arrived in the province of Almería in 1974. We came to respond to the needs of immigrants, coming from other more depressed parts of Spain, especially women and children, who were looking for a better life for their families. Click here to read more.

Mexico: At the Escuela Guadalupe, we thought that the feast of the Sacred Heart would be a good opportunity to make more visible the mission of the Society, especially the actions taken around the world in support of Justice, Peace, and the Integrity of Creation. Click here to read more.

Visits to the UN

Marie Gisèle Tram, RSCJ, from the Society's new Mission in Vietnam shares a reflection. Click here to read.

Interns at the UN

High school students, Audrey (pictured right) from Canada and Charlize (pictured left) from the USA were summer interns at the UN-NGO. What did they do? Click here to see Audrey's project. For Charlize's report click here.

Maribel Carcellar, RSCJ from the Philippines District shares a reflection.

Click here.

Sacred Heart Students from Sapporo, Japan

Click here to read their report.

Next Edition in December
Theme: Environment

Follow Us!

Copyright © 2017 Society of the Sacred Heart, All rights reserved.

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

