

Talitha Kum is an international network of Consecrated Life against trafficking in persons. Working as a network facilitates collaboration and the interchange of information between consecrated men and women in 70 countries.

Talitha Kum was founded in 2009. It arose from the shared desire to coordinate and strengthen the already existing activities against trafficking undertaken by consecrated persons in the five continents.

It is a project of the International Union of Superiors General (UISG), in collaboration with the Union of Superiors General (USG).

*“If you want to go fast, go alone.
If you want to go far,
go together.”
(African proverb)*

Talitha Kum

is an expression that is found in the Gospel of Mark (5, 41).

The words from the Aramaic mean
"Maiden, I say to you, arise."

These words were addressed by Jesus
to the twelve year old daughter of Jairus,
who lay apparently lifeless.
Jesus took her by the hand
and she immediately got up and walked.

The worldwide network of consecrated life
committed against trafficking in persons chose the expression "Talitha Kum"
to define their identity.

The expression "Talitha Kum" has
the transformative power of compassion and mercy,
which awakens the deep desire for dignity and life
which may be asleep and injured
by the many forms of exploitation.
